

Attention Wartime Veterans and Their Families:

Are you missing out on up to $32,729 per year in tax-free income from the Veterans Administration to offset medical expenses or pay for long-term care?

The Aid and Attendance Pension is often referred to as the “VA’s Best Kept Secret.” This 3-tiered, tax-free benefit is available for wartime veterans and their spouses who need financial assistance or help covering the costs associated with long-term care or unreimbursed medical expenses.

These critical benefits are overlooked by many families of Veterans or their surviving spouses because the VA is not required to tell you if you qualify!

- ✓ You do not have to have a service-connected disability to access Aid & Attendance Benefits.
- ✓ The wartime veteran or spouse must need assistance with activities of daily living (like bathing, dressing, cooking, or cleaning). Those who qualify can receive over $2000 per month in benefits.
- ✓ A&A is the highest level of the VA’s Improved Pension, which consists of three tiers. If the Veteran does not qualify for A&A, he or she may still qualify for one of the lower benefit levels.
- ✓ The Veteran does not have to be in a facility to be eligible for any of the benefit levels. Care can be provided in the home by either outside agencies or family members.
- ✓ This benefit is available even if the Veteran doesn’t need care, but his or her spouse does.
